The 1953 Hudsonian,

Presented by the Senior Class

of Hudson High School,

Hudson, Michigan

ALMA MATER

"H" stands for "Hope and Honor,"
"U" for "United Strength,"
"D" is for "Determination,"
"S" means "Sure Success"
"O" is for "Onward Ever,"
"N" means "To Give Up Never,"
When you put them all together they spell good old Hudson High

Dedication

We, the Senior class of 1953, dedicate this Hudsonian to Mrs. Emily

Moloney, Mr. Harry Atkinson, and Mr. Robert Seidel.

Mrs. Moloney has worked here three school terms, Harry Atkinson has worked here seventeen years, and Mr. Seidel, the newest member—six months. We certainly couldn't get along without them.

Class Prophecy

TEN YEARS HENCE
For the Class of 1953

JEAN WHITESELL, an expert on farming methods from practical experience, won the Nobel Prize.

BEVERLY SWEEZEY, world-famous interior decorator, has introduced a new trend in color--vermillion walls, orange drapes, and purple rugs.

JIM GOULD and BILL RUPLEY are still attempting their trip to California.

BOB TOMER is making the army a career. He is a dreaded, hard-bitten sergeant.

BEVERLY BOWMAN is an unsuccessful secretary--all her bosses are married.

LINDA BRINKERHOFF and D. S. are raising a bunch of little carrot-tops.

JACK WILLIAMS still has his dear expeditions.

SHIRLEY ZIMMERMAN who liked Home Ec. so well is teaching. In her spare time she is head chef at the Stork Club.

CAROLYN RIDGLEY is dean of Vassar. (Nursing didn't suit her.)

JO ANN MERCER (Burger) is studying Japanese because her residence has been established there.

ANNE WEISENFELDER is running the famous steamship "Tugboat Annie".

DOYCE KERR AND ARLENE FREDERICK have reconciled and have their own kennel of little "Kerrs".

MILTON HUTCHISON had a complete change of personality--he just took over Milton Berle's show.

EILENE CLARK has a good start of General Mills products.

LUANNA EADY owns a chain of bakeries and is teaching the employees to skate.

MARY STUMP, ex-concert pianist, has given up her position to teach her own pupils.

JEAN KOPE is a seamstress and styles clothes for the new first lady, JOAN SHARP.

LESTER KOPE is attempting the first rocket flight to Mars.

JACK GARLAND is driving hot-rod cars at the races at Indianapolis.

Business is really "popping" for CHARLES SALAMIN. He has a pop-corn farm.

LESTER FIKE has built on an extra room for his trophies from his prize cattle.

DELORES MARRY has made so much money at tips at Joe Coscarelli's that she is retiring this year.

HAL MILLION has been proclaimed the "Rembrandt" of our era.

DIXIE HAMANN, still moaning over the Republican victory in 1952, is the first woman to run for Congress on the new ticket.

RAY PELHAM is now "boss-man" at Jackson prison--warden, that is.

RUSSELL HALL, famous veterinarian, just lost most of his "patience".

KEITH MUNSELL and JEAN GRIFFITH are the stars of a disk-jockey program similar to Lloyd Thaxton's.

ALDEN AUSTIN AND ARDELL STREET have a poultry farm and raise everything from turkeys to kids.

JOYCE MYERS ASHBECK is raising her own little team and cheerleaders. An entrance to all countries has MARVIN SCHUTTE "international casanova."

ALICE KORTE finally secured a position in the state insane asylum as superintendent.

DALE KISNER won the National Contest for Hog Callers in the 1963 contest.

RUTH (GREEN) KISNER was runner-up.

EVELYN DECK, the current rage in Hollywood, is the leading lady of "Froglegs."

CHARLENE MASTEN and LEONA WHEELER are running an old maids' home for bachelors.

EVALEE MILLIMAN is head of the Wayne County Morgue. She enjoys her work very much in spite of the "stiff" routine.

JIM and DON LEMONS have perfected a new "Second-made" lemon juice. They also own dairies in six cities.

Last Will and Testament

We the Senior Class of 1953, of the City of Hudson, County of Lenawee, State of Michigan, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of this life, do make, publish, and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other wills by us made.

Item I

FIRST: To our succeeding class, the class of 1954, we hereby give and bequeath the work, play, honor, and joys of being Seniors.

SECOND: We hereby give and bequeath to the class of 1954 all of our ideas and plans for making money for the Senior Trip. We also bequeath to them the right to originate their own ideas.

THIRD: We hereby give and bequeath the dignity and responsibilities that every Senior must assume in order to be a well-functioning class.

FOURTH: We bequeath our privilege of being part of our nation's democracy at Government Day and also Career Day.

FIFTH: We bequeath the sole right of publishing the Hudsonian Yearbook, the Senior Play, and having fun on the Senior Trip and Skip Day to the class of 1954. To no underclassmen are these rights and privileges granted.

Item II

FIRST: We hereby bequeath to the members of the class of 1955 their right as Juniors to give the annual J-Hop and the Junior-Senior Banquet.

SECOND: We give and bequeath to the class of 1955 the duty of looking up to the Seniors as examples for them to follow.

Item III

FIRST: We hereby bequeath to the class of 1956 the privilege of initiating the class of 1957 into Hudson School, under the condition that they initiate kindly and sensibly.

Item IV

We hereby bequeath to the next Freshman class, the class of 1957, all of the great experiences that four years of high school will give them. They should accept these experiences with dignity and thus grow in knowledge.

As individuals, we bequeath the following:

I, Alden Austin, will my bright remarks to Emily Tibbets and Kathleen Kisner.

I, Beverly Bowman, will some of my freckles and position as Yearbook Editor to anyone who wants them.

F.F.A.

The F. F. A. has had an interesting year under the direction of Mr. Wald. The outstanding activities were a trip to Chicago to attend the International Livestock Show, radio broadcasts, a Junior Dairy Herd Program, and a class mastitis detection program. The class obtained use of some land and is planting corn and oats.

This year for the first time a girl has taken agriculture. She is Kay Kelly, a freshman, who plans on becoming a veterinarian.

The officers for the year are:

President--Bill Carey
 Vice Pres.--Alden Austin
 Secretary--Kay Kelly
 Treasurer--Larry Marowelli
